Smith to Summons a Jury Accordingly, but I beg the favour of you to send by this bearen Orders to him to appoint Tuesday instead of Thursday next, for on Wednesday I must go into Yorkshire and likewise the Person that has the Money must go with me, I beg your pardon for taking this Liberty, but my Lord did not resolve before last night that I should take this Journey and his Lordship set forward this morning, so I have no opportunity of altering this affair & I hope you will Excuse me.
