

17

february: 28th: 1731

Mannor of Siddington cum Caldroff

memorandum The day and year above written John Caud some Customary tenant of the said mannor of Caldroff did out of Court Surrender in to the hands of the Lord of the said mannor by the hands of Lewis Woodroffe one of the Deputies there by the Rod according to the Customs of the said mannor all that his cottage houses with the commons of pasture and all and Every the appertinances unto the same beloning In the mannor of Caldroff aforesaid now In the tenure and occupation of John Caud aforesaid: To the use and behovall of his wife Elizabeth Caud for the terme of her naturall life and after her deces to his son John Caud to him and his heirs and assignes for ever according to the Custom of this said mannor

This Surrender was Taken by me

Lewis Woodroffe 11: April 1731: Ind in Cur
Deputy

John

his J mark
Caud

11th April 1731: Caud the said quit surrendt upon for the said

6: 4

~~6: 4~~

2: 6

~~6: 4~~

7: 10