

22/45
The manner of Liddington All the Court of the right Honorable John Earle of Exeter ^{Baron of Burghley} there shewen the Rowen of Twentieth with Walderott Day of Aprill In the year of our Lord Christ according to the anoynt new uses in England 1652.
By the Steward there is enrolled as followeth: All this Court Robert Ireland did surrender into the hands of the Lord by the hands of the Steward our Messuagor with Chaqurton in Liddington Collesse behooft of him the said Robert for during the term of his naturall lyfe & after his decease to the use & behoofe of Robert Ireland his Sonne & Anne his wife & the heires & assignes of their two bodies yssuing & for default of such yssue to the use & behoofe of the heires & assignes of the said Robert the Come forever to whom the Lord by his letters hath therof granted & given to have & to hold the same to the uses aforesaid at the will of the Lord according to the Contents of the Manner & rendering Agre. therof in case to the Lord if without Suit or Court or other Comyned therefore due & accustomed they give the Lord Agre for their admittance as appears in the Margine here made fealige & are admitted & content

Examined by mee J^h Gorstons