

The Mannor of Eddington in the County of Rutland - Memorandum that on the eleventh day of April in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred & thirty two John Partridge of Duffry in the County of Down a customary tenant of the Mannor aforesaid in open Court did surrender into the hands of the Lord of the said Mannor by the hands of John Blackwell Gent Steward thereof by the Lord One Messuage now into two divided with a close of pasture containing half an acre thereof belonging in Eddington aforesaid now or late in the several tenures or occupations of John Andrew John Kiggby & Robert Manton with their appurtenances within the Mannor aforesaid to the use of School of William Emanuel of Eddington aforesaid George & his heirs perpetual for ever according to the custom of the said Mannor

John Partridge

This Surrender was duly taken the day & Year first above written

1: 0
 3: 4
 2: 6
 5: 4
 2: 6
 -----
 14: 8 1/2

11.º ap<sup>to</sup> 1732 witness Larran Adams gent Surrell
 of the said Parish