

Liddington rd
Caldecott.

The first day of Decem^r. 30. / Ex 30/16

Be it Remembred that the daye year above written John Cant one of the Customary Tenants of the Mannor aforesaid did out of Court Surrender into the hands of the Lords of the said Mannor by the hands of Thomas Manton one of the Deemors three One parcel of arable land accounted by estimation One acre lying in the Middle field of Liddington aforesaid Mr. Barby land East Elizabeth Ward, with a certan parcel of ley or pasture grounds accounted by estimation half an acre lying in the North field of Liddington aforesaid, the Lord's Land called Somersley lying East One land at the Land Corner abutting on Mr. Thornstons had land Michael Reynold's South, & one half acre lying at the North pits abutting on the Meadow dike; being the third ley from the Parson Ley Westward, & One acre & half of land lying Somersley Shorwood, now or late in the hands & occupation of Willm. Browne his assigne or assigns To the use & behoofe of Jane Cant of Uppingham in the County of Rutland Widow for and during the Term of her naturall life and immediably after her decease
To the use & behoofe of Elizabeth Cant daughter of the said Jane Cant & of her heirs & assigns for ever at the will of the Lord according to the custome of the Mannor aforesaid.

This Surrender was taken the daye year above written By me Thomas Manton

John Cant
his Marke.

Redd witt & this Copy made

Jane Cant admitted

John Cant his Lrdship
Lrd of the Admiralty